Fulvic Trace Mineral Complex

Cellvida™ liquid trace minerals are derived from mineral-rich seaweed. Over time, the seaweed absorbs minerals and nutrients from the sea water, which creates this unique marine mineral multicomplex that includes calcium, magnesium and a full spectrum of trace minerals in their natural form.

To enhance absorption and provide even greater nutritional benefits, we combined our trace minerals with fulvic acid. Fulvic acid is not only rich in nutrients and extremely tiny, it binds to vitamins, minerals and trace elements and transports them through the body and into the cells.[†]
